The Importance of the Annual Preventive Checkup

It is always a good time to start taking better care of ourselves. That is why we want to guide you about that annual medical checkup and the most recommended preventive tests. *

Why is it important to visit the doctor every year?

- This is one of the most important tools for your health.
- A routine annual visit helps detect problems before they become crises and keeps you up to date with your preventive tests.

What are these essential tests?

They vary by age, medical history, and gender:

- Physical exam
- Blood pressure monitoring
- Weight and body mass index (BMI) evaluation
- In women: pap smear and mammogram

- Visit to ophthalmologist for the funduscopy and glaucoma examination
- Laboratories for cholesterol, sugar, among others
- Bone density
- Colorectal cancer tests
- Vaccines
- Depression screening
- Testing for sexually transmitted infections

Examples of prevention benefits

- Early detection of a cancer diagnosis is the key that may determine the success of a treatment.
 - If all people aged 50 and older were screened for colorectal cancer, up to 60% of colorectal cancer deaths could be prevented.
- If you are diabetic, getting routinely tested for AC1 helps keep your kidneys healthy.

PREVENTION IS THE BEST MEDICINE!

Health Risk Assessment HRA

To help you achieve your health goal, we offer you the Health Risk Assessment (HRA). This online tool allows you to identify risk factors and lifestyles that can affect your well-being and your family.

Take control of your health!

When completing the questionnaire, the HRA tool develops a general evaluation of health and offers you recommendations for improvement of your health. Share it with your doctor and follow his/her instructions for tests and other preventive diagnostic tests.*

PREVENTIVE CENTERS

Triple-S has 9 Preventive Care Centers that promote the health and well-being of your staff. These centers simplify access to preventive checkups for better quality of health. Through these centers, members 21 years and over can get their yearly checkup in one visit without copayments in most tests. Primary Care Physician and Quality of Care: a Direct Relationship

Having a primary care physician (PCP) is one of the elements most connected to the quality of your care. This is because if you have a primary care physician, their role is to help you receive coordinated care.

Role of the PCP

The PCP's main role is to help you lead a healthy lifestyle and prevent diseases. Prevention is just as valuable at any age and a reason to have a primary care physician, even if you have a free choice health plan. Medicine is becoming more complex and specialized. That is why patients often have difficulty understanding their conditions and the scope of treatment. When you have a PCP, they help you navigate your care, assess the urgency of your health problems, and guide you on the specialist you should visit. This way you don't waste time visiting a gastroenterologist when you really need to see a cardiologist.

PCP vs. Subspecialist

A PCP can be a general practitioner, family physician, as well as an internist.

The PCP's and the specialist's work complement each other. For example, a patient who is referred to a cardiologist usually arrives with laboratories and a more complete clinical picture than one who goes on his or her own. This helps the specialist save time and achieve a faster diagnosis and treatment.

Who benefits from having a PCP?

We all benefit from having a PCP, because when we go from specialist to specialist the continuity of care is affected. In these cases, specialists, not knowing your entire history, will most likely order laboratory tests and imaging scans that you may already have in your record with your primary care physician. This represents a higher expense in deductibles and a possible delay in your treatment. Likewise, your PCP can ensure that you're not taking a medication that may interact with any other medication you're taking or treatment you're in.

Where Should I Go: Emergency Room or Urgent Care Center?

In recent years, we have been seeing the rise of urgent care centers in the island. But if one asks the difference between an urgent care center and an emergency room, few people can explain it. It is important that you know their differences and when each one should be visited.

The main difference is in the severity of the cases they treat. An emergency room is designed to treat health situations that put a person's life in imminent danger, such as a heart attack or severe asthma.

In contrast, an urgent care center treats situations that require quick attention, but that are not necessarily life threatening.

EXAMPLES OF EMERGENCIES

In addition to chest pressure or chest pain that raise the suspicion of a heart attack, the following are considered emergencies:

- Sudden, severe pain in the stomach area
- Uncontrolled blood pressure
- Loss of consciousness
- Trouble breathing
- Sudden headache or headache that is accompanied by nausea
- Numbness, tingling, or loss of movement in one part of the body, especially if it is in one part of the body. Unable to speak coherently.

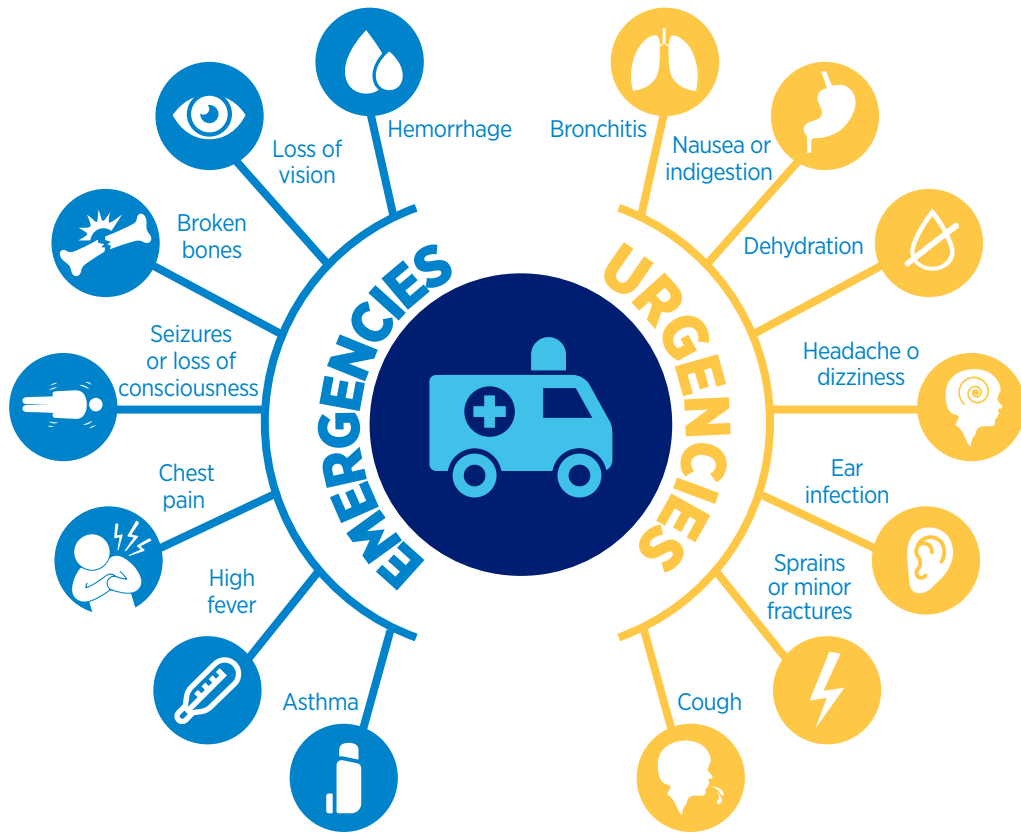

- Sudden changes in vision
- A wound with severe bleeding
- A severe burn
- Fractures, especially if the bone is visible

EXAMPLES OF URGENCIES

- Earache
- Eye infection
- Sprained ankle
- Severe sore throat
- Vomiting/diarrhea
- Back pain, painful muscle spasms

WHAT ARE THE ADVANTAGES OF VISITING THE URGENT CARE CENTER WHEN IT IS NOT A TRUE EMERGENCY?

- First and foremost, you are freeing up resources to deal with true emergencies.
- Also, you will probably have a shorter wait in an urgent care center. We must remember that emergency rooms operate on a triage basis. This means it is not a first-come, first-served basis; the most serious cases are seen first. If you have a cold and go to the emergency room, you will have a longer wait, since a cold is not considered a priority.
- Lastly, urgent care centers have lower copayments than emergency rooms.

Benefit coordination

WHAT IS COORDINATION OF BENEFITS?

- Avoids payments in excess when health care is covered by two or more health plan policies.
- The payment of deductibles and coinsurances left to pay by the primary plan, will be assumed by your secondary plan when the payment does not outpace the net payment amount if only you had a primary plan. The payment policy will apply as stated by the contract.
- This also applies to any request of reimbursements you have made where you could recover the whole or the maximum possible of the cost of the care received.

HOW DO I PAY THE DEDUCTIBLES AND COINSURANCES?

- Traditional way (Medicare) - Triple-S Salud pays the deductibles and coinsurances left to pay for Medicare, applying the payment policy.
- Triple- S Salud with another Triple-S Salud plan or an external private plan - the payment of deductibles and coinsurances left to pay for the primary plan, will be assumed by the secondary plan when and when this payment does not outpace the amount of the net payment that would have made this same policy if only this were your primary plan. The payment policy applies.
- Preserving benefits - payment for the secondary takes as its basis the comparison of the net payment of your primary with the net payment of your secondary plan, as if the latter is primary

WHO PAYS FIRST?

See table on next page.

Coordination with Government Health Plan

The government health plan will always be secondary to any other insurance.

	Primary	Secondary	Tertiary
Dependent / Non dependent	Where you are the policy mainholder	Where you are a dependent
Birthdays	First birthday of the year or Oldest policy (in case both birthdays are on the same day)	Second birthday of the year
Custody	Who has custody of the child	Spouse of custodian	Parent without custody
Active/inactive (mainholder)	Active Employee insurance	Retired employee insurance
Active/inactive (as dependent)	Retired employee insurance	Active Employee insurance
Active/inactive (retired as dependent) and Medicare	Active Employee insurance	Medicare	Retired employee insurance
Antiquity	Oldest policy	Newest policy

Is your child turning 26?

Triple-S Salud has options to keep taking care of their health

Did you know 26 is the age limit for a child to be an eligible dependent under a health plan? We understand how this may worry you. Knowing your child is about to turn 26, at Triple-S Salud we would like to tell you more about what you can do to keep them covered and continue getting their health care services.

TWO OPTIONS FOR CONTINUATION OF CARE

Temporary Continuation of Coverage (TCC)

As an insured dependent on FEHB, your child may be eligible for Temporary Continuation of Coverage (TCC). This extended period of coverage allows you to maintain the same FEHB coverage, with the following considerations:

- Employees or dependents who are separated can continue with TCC for up to 18 months after the separation date.
- Member must pay the full plan premium they select (i.e. employee and government contribution) plus an administrative fee of 2%.
- Federal and family employees who lose their FEHB coverage due to a qualifying event may be eligible for TCC.
- IMPORTANT: You may not elect TCC if you are fired from your Federal or Tribal job due to gross misconduct.

For more information visit <https://www.opm.gov/healthcare-insurance/healthcare/temporary-continuation-of-coverage/> where it explains what you must do to enroll.
